

AA23 Animal Science II
Unit B Objective 3.01 Small Animal Care Industry
Honors Portfolio Assignment: Small Animal Care Industry Career Profile

Student Instructions:

- Students will research a career in the small animal care industry assigned by the teacher.
- Students will design and create a career profile electronically online via their weebly website.
- Students may use CANVA or other poster-makers for the career profile.
- The student must provide a list of resources for the profile and MAY NOT COPY AND PASTE directly from the website (plagiarism). Students must cite source when unable to put the information in their own words.
- Facts and data may be obtained from any reputable source (Wikipedia is not a reputable source).
- Student will present information on career using a n electronic presentation to the class. (PowerPoint, Prezi, etc.)

Honors Small Animal Career Profile Requirements:

Requirements	Points
Select a small animal career – have your teacher approve it. Careers cannot be duplicated.	/5 pts.
Career profile design: - must be well-organized, eye catching and reader-friendly - Career Title should be a larger font – it is the focal point. - 1 page limit	/15 pts.
Education Requirements: - List educational requirements - Includes specialized experiences, certifications, trainings - “No education requirements” is not acceptable	/15 pts.
Skill Requirements: - List and describe al needed or required skills - Should include soft skills and hard skills	/ 15 pts.
Salary: - Include salary range	/10 pts.
Pictures: - Include at least three (3) pictures - May not take up more than 1/3 of the page	/10 pts.
References: - Submit a word document (google doc) with references	/10 pts.
Presentation: - Student will present information to the class using a PowerPoint or other electronic presentation method	/20 pts.